 - Individual Conferences when requested or needed
 - Individual Phone calls when requested or needed
 - Reading Specialists provide additional testing data and interpretation of this data when requested or needed on a student
 - Mailing home the PSSA test results, along with a letter explaining the results, as soon as the reports are available to the schools

9. King's Highway Elementary School will take the following actions to provide each parent timely notice when their child has been assigned or has been taught for four (4) or more consecutive weeks by a teacher who is not highly qualified within the meaning of the term in section 200.56 of the Title I Final Regulations (67 Fed. Reg. 71710, December 2, 2002) by:
 - A written notice will be sent to parents

10. King's Highway Elementary School will provide assistance to parents of children served by the school, as appropriate, to better understand state standards and local curriculum:
 - At Back to School Night parents are introduced to the ELA curriculum as well as materials reading specialists and classroom teachers may use for interventions
 - Report cards and any teacher created progress reports are standards based and easy to understand
 - Classroom teachers and reading specialists meet with parents at conferences to help them better understand the ELA curriculum
 - Curriculum information will be available on the district webpage as well as on the individual school's website

11. King's Highway Elementary School will provide materials and training to help parents work with their children to improve their children's academic achievement, such as literacy training and using technology, as appropriate, to foster parental involvement, by:
 - Lending Library (provides a constant, changing supply of literacy materials appropriate for the student's reading level for parents to use at home with their children)
 - Reading Specialists will provide training for volunteers who will help classrooms with reading and writing support.
 - Parent Resource Library is available.
 - Periodic literacy events are offered to families of Title I students where parents are shown strategies to help improve their child's reading

12. King's Highway Elementary School will, with the assistance of its parents, educate its teachers, pupil services personnel, principals and other staff in how to reach out to, communicate with, and work with parents as equal partners in the value and utility of contributions of parents, and in how to implement and coordinate parent programs and build ties between parents and schools, by:
 - Meeting for parents and reading specialists to discuss parent involvement plan.
 - All students receive a compact that is signed by the building principal, parent, and student (age appropriate). This compact explains the expectations of each stake holder.
 - Kindergarten readiness screening is followed with an individual conference to provide feedback on the needs of each student

13. King's Highway Elementary School will take the following actions to ensure that information related to the school and parent-programs, meetings, and other activities is sent to parents in an understandable and uniform format, including alternative formats upon request, and, to the extent practicable, in a language the parents can understand:
 - Written invitations to meetings and school activities
 - Phone invitations to meetings and school activities
 - Listing upcoming meetings on the school's website and monthly newsletter
 - A translator provides immediate Spanish communication during parent meetings
 - Family members who provide additional translation opportunities are strongly encouraged to attend meetings and family nights

DISCRETIONARY SCHOOL PARENTAL INVOLVEMENT POLICY COMPONENTS

We will provide a framework within which we enable parents to initiate a supportive relationship with each other for the benefit of the children and families within King's Highway Elementary School

ADOPTION

This School Parental Involvement Policy has been developed jointly with, and agreed on with, parents of children participating in Title I, Part A programs, as evidenced by parent meetings and planned activities.
